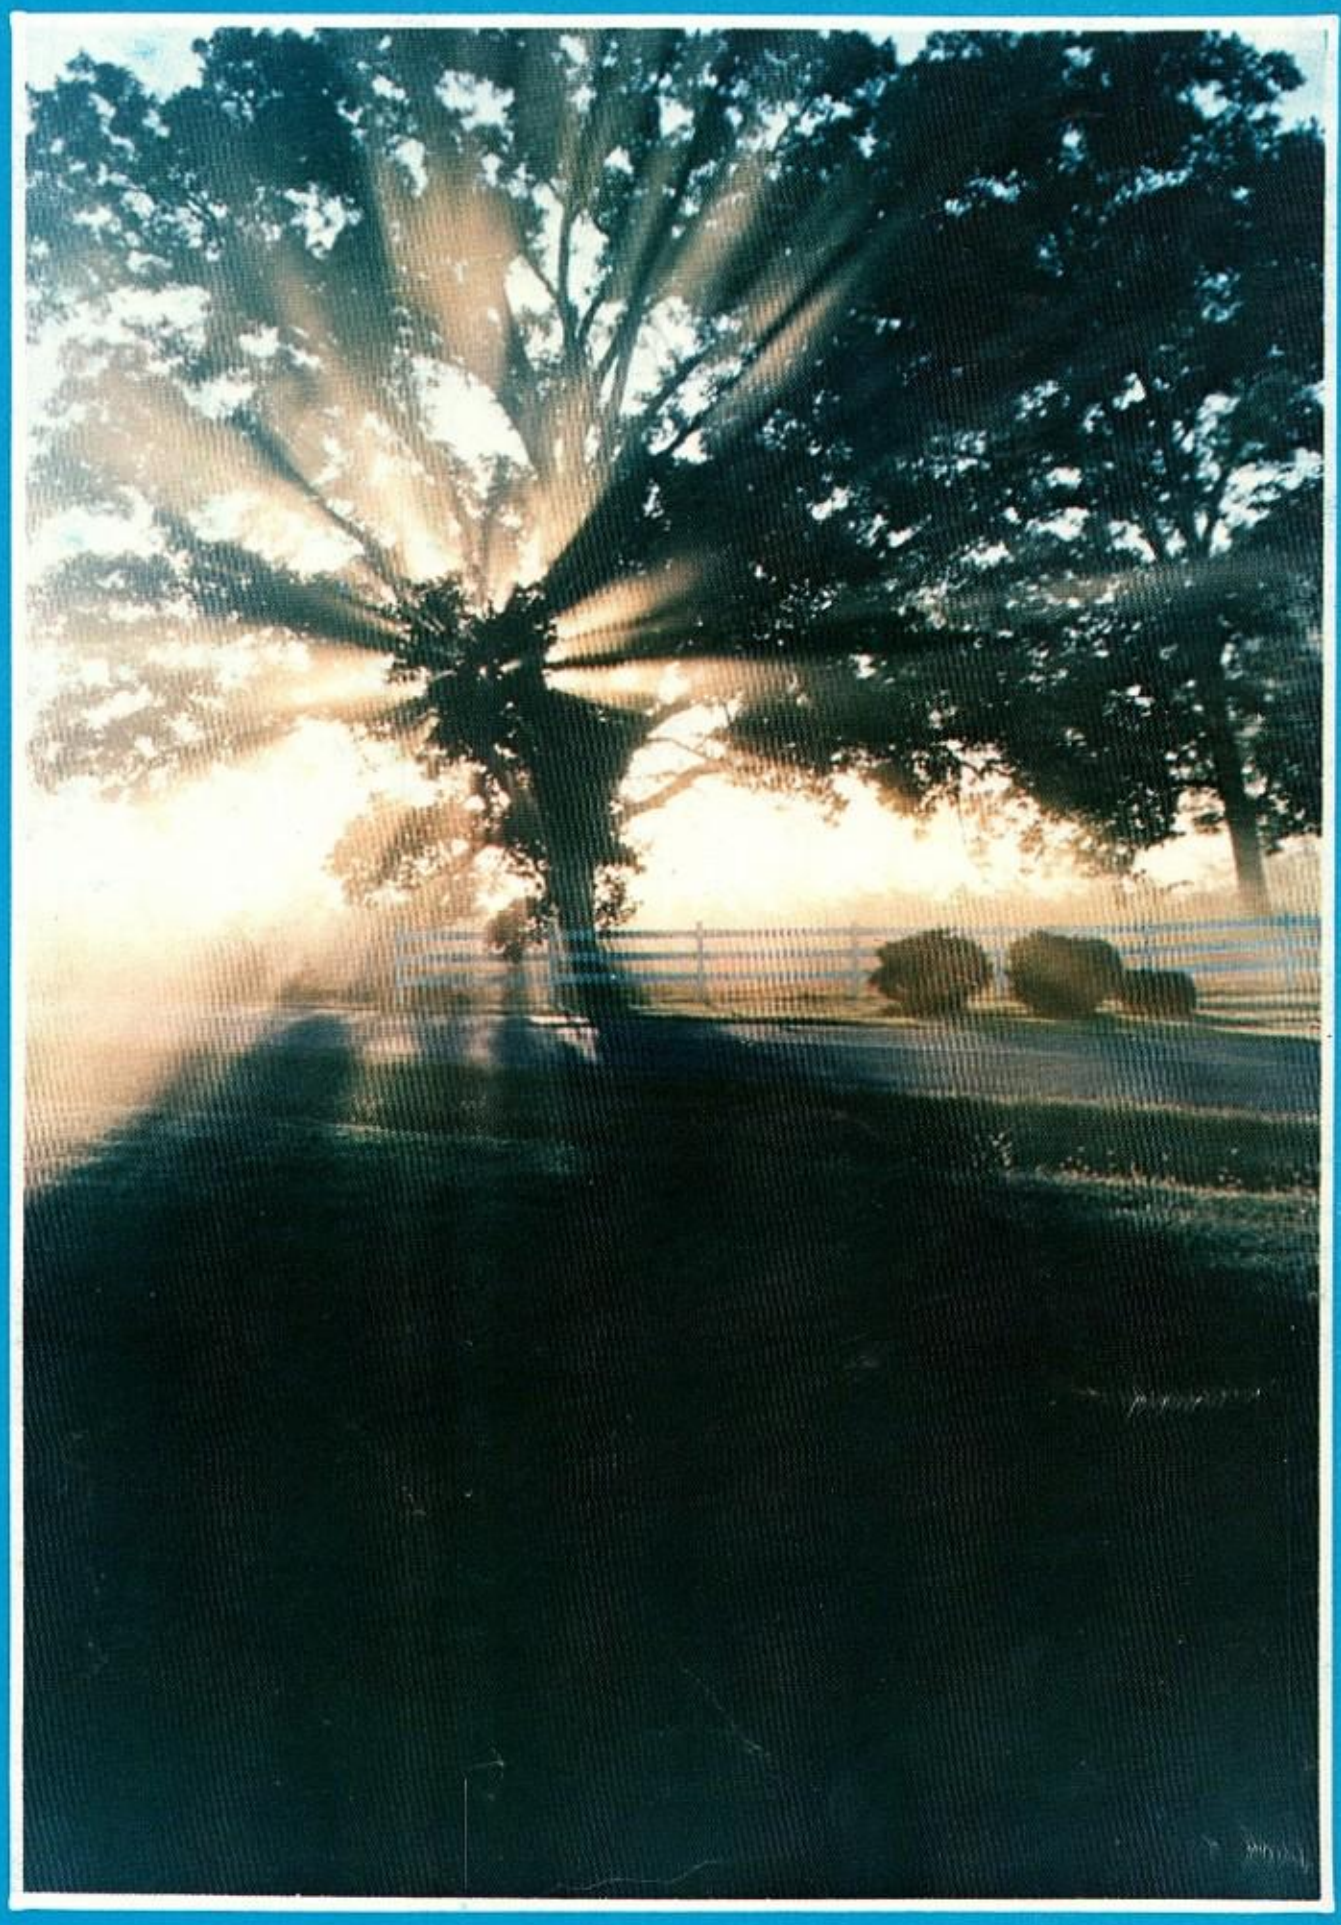
Life without Love is like a tree without blossom and fruit. And love without Beauty is like flowers without scent and fruits without seeds... Life, Love, and Beauty are three persons in one, who cannot be separated or changed.

Life without Rebellion is like seasons without Spring. And Rebellion without Right is like Spring in an arid desert...Life, Rebellion, and Right are three-in-one, who cannot be changed or separated.

Life without Freedom is like a body without a soul, and Freedom without Thought is like a confused spirit...Life, Freedom, and Thought are three-in-one, and are everlasting and never pass away.

Kahlil Gibran



Life without Love is like a tree without blossom and fruit.

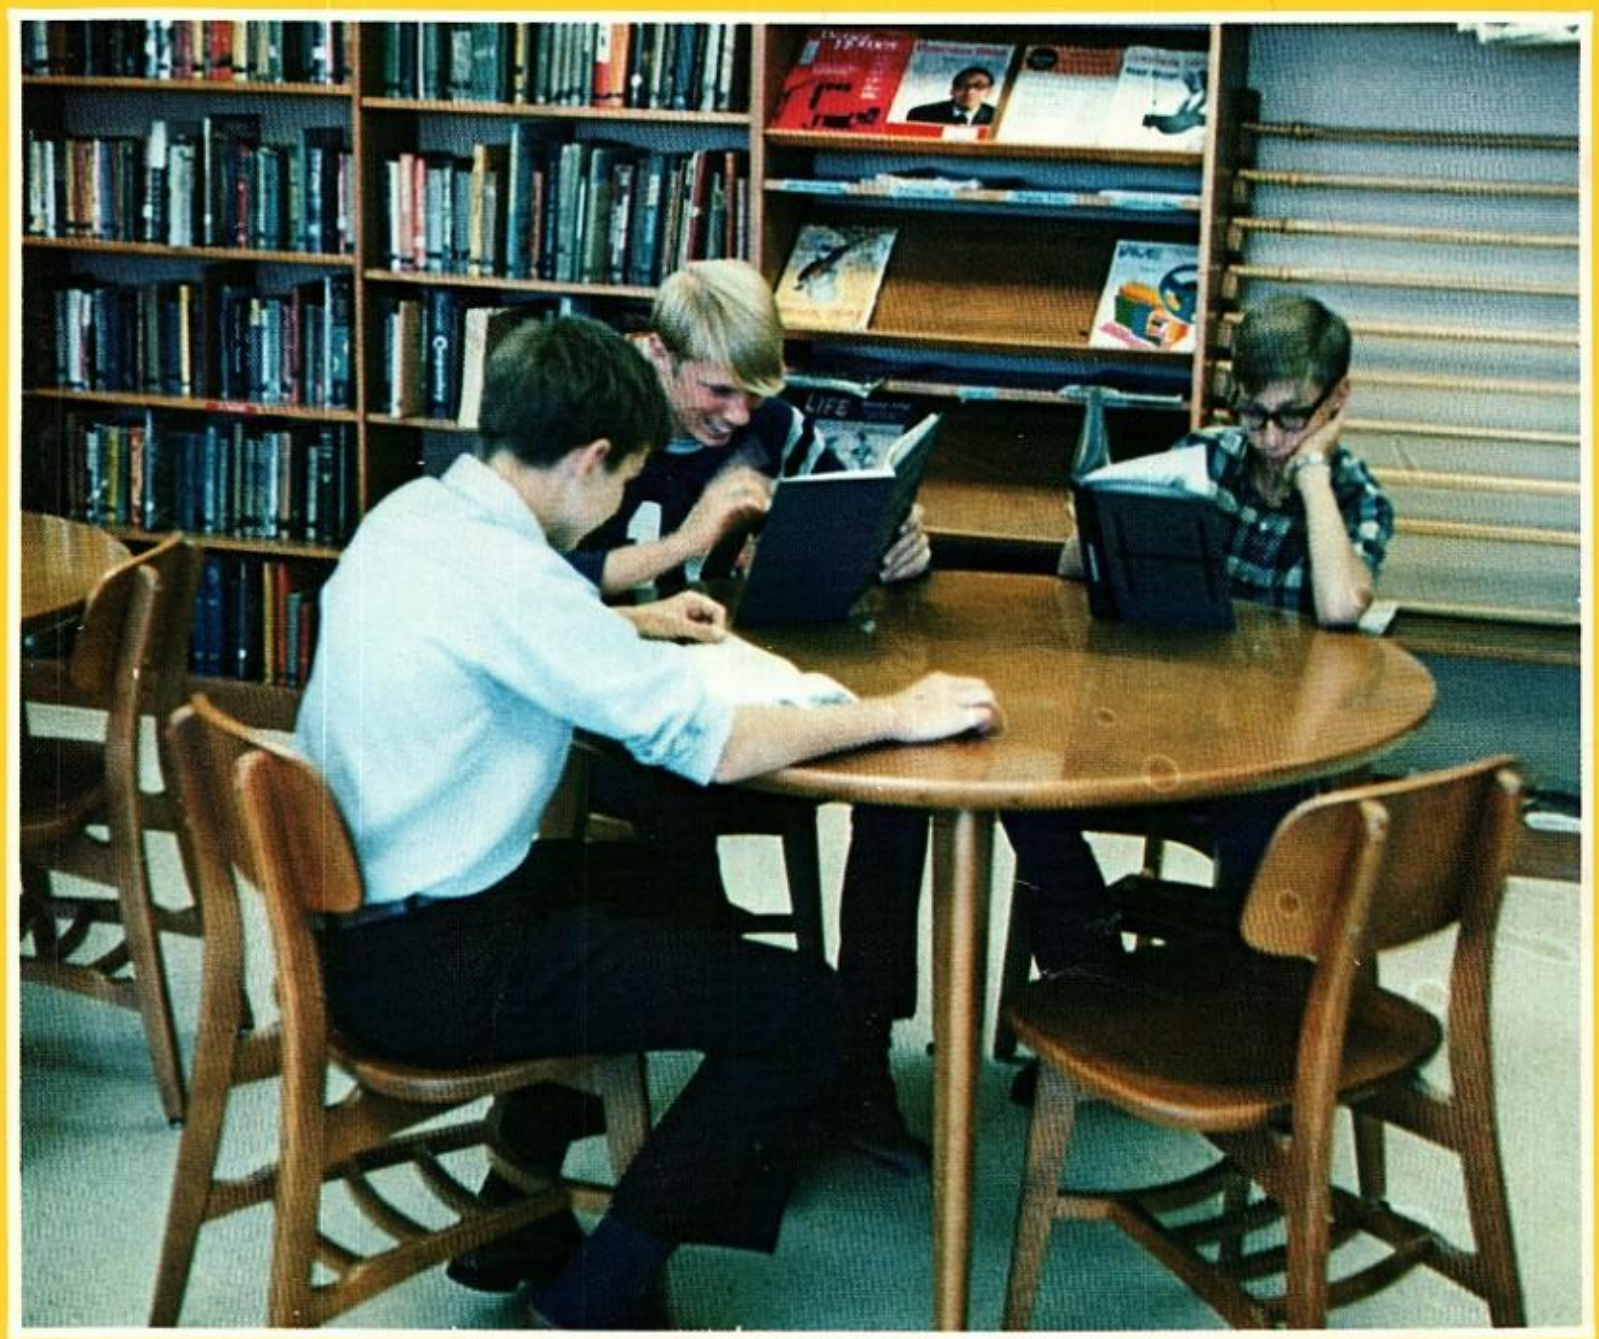
And love without Beauty is like flowers without scent and fruit without seeds . . .

Life, Love, and Beauty are three persons in one, who cannot be separated or changed.

Life without Rebellion is like seasons without Spring.

And Rebellion without Right is like Spring in an arid desert . . .

Life, Rebellion, and Right are three-in-one, who cannot be changed or separated.



Life without Freedom is like a body without a soul,

And Freedom without Thought is like a confused spirit . . .

Life, Freedom, and Thought are three-in-one,
and are everlasting
and never pass away.

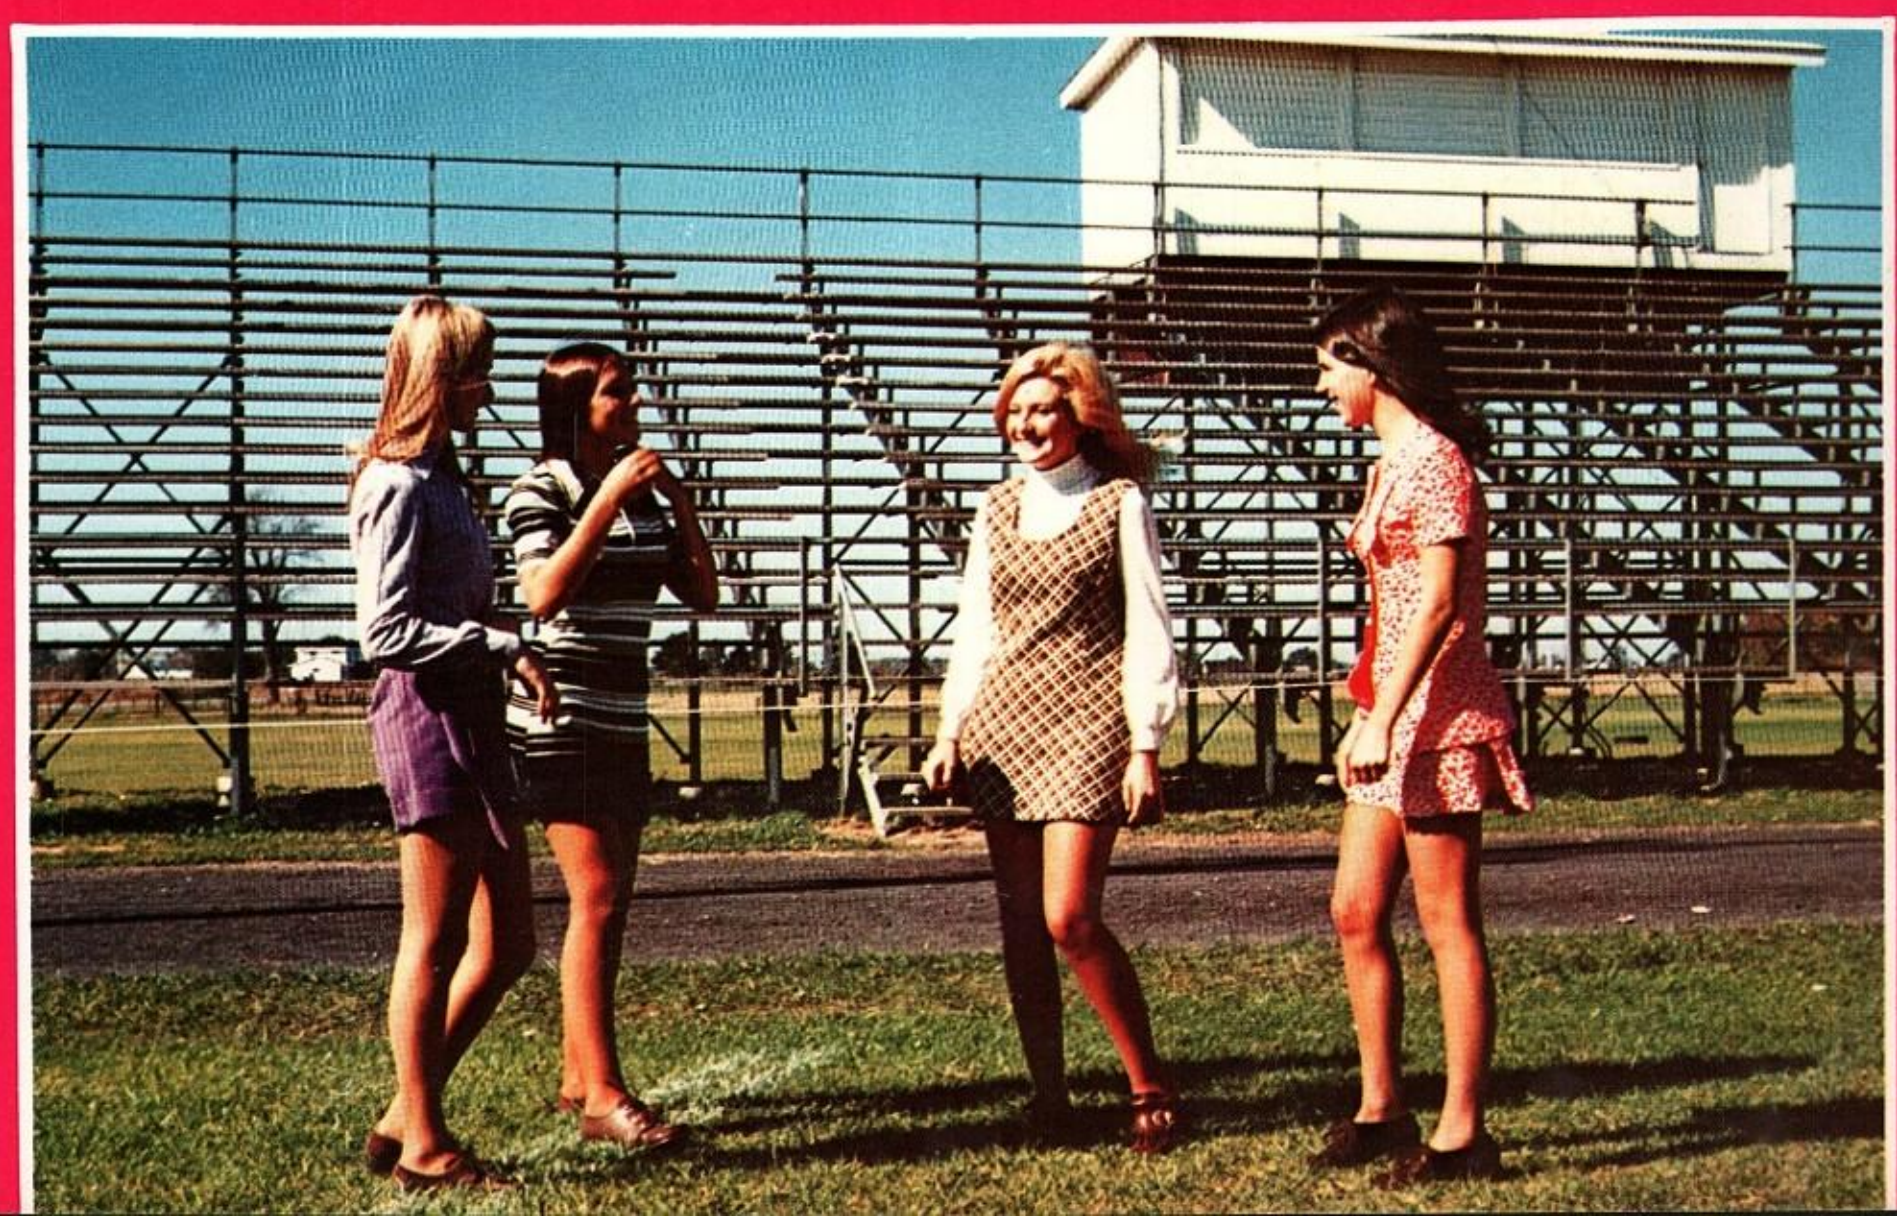
Love with Beauty, Rebellion with Right, Freedom with Thought — these are the elements of Life.



Royále 1972 Is Dedicated to Ellen Schiefer

The members of the staff of the Royále 1972 have dedicated this yearbook to Mrs. Ellen Schiefer. Her work in the home economics department has helped many Wynford students gain a better understanding in the field of home economics.

Mrs. Schiefer is always willing to assist those in need and is very understanding. She has worked hard in her four years of teaching at Wynford High School and we hope more students will appreciate her efforts and benefit from them in the future.

With sincere thanks for all she has done, we of the staff wish Mrs. Schiefer much continued success in the future years at Wynford.

Administration — Those Who Set Educational Policy Guidelines

Mr. Donnenwirth and Mr. Miller have put in many long hours to see that our school runs as smoothly as possible.

As superintendent, Mr. Donnenwirth is Chief Administrative Officer of the Board of Education, responsible for carrying out its educational objectives and policies. It is his job to make recommendations to the Board on the school budget and finances of the operation of the school.

Among these and many other very important jobs, he has the duty of keeping the people informed on conditions in the schools, furnishing educational leadership to the board, school employees and the community.

Mr. Miller, principal, must see to the high school's general supervision. It is up to him to see to the general care of the building and its activities. Along with many other duties he takes care of all discipline and public relations dealing with the school.

SUPERINTENDENT, MR. WILLIAM R. DONNENWIRTH- B.S. in Education from Ohio University, M.E. in Education from Ohio State University, Post Masters Work.

PRINCIPAL, MR. DON MILLER- B.S. in Education, M.E. in Education, and Post Masters Work at Bowling Green State University.

Board of Education, Secretaries, Guidance Counselors Provide Aid.

Several important groups, whose work is of great value to our school and its functions, are the board of education, our secretaries, clerks, and guidance counselors. These people have the jobs of setting standards and policies, carrying out financial transactions, and advising the individual student, among many other duties.

Mrs. Cover, secretary to the principal and chief custodian of high school activities; Mrs. Gilliland, secretary to the superintendent; and Mrs. Beidelschies, clerk-treasurer to the Wynford Board of Education, have the responsibilities to handle all financial transactions involving the school and its district. They handle all correspondence involving purchase orders. These represent only a small part of the work they must do during the course of the day.

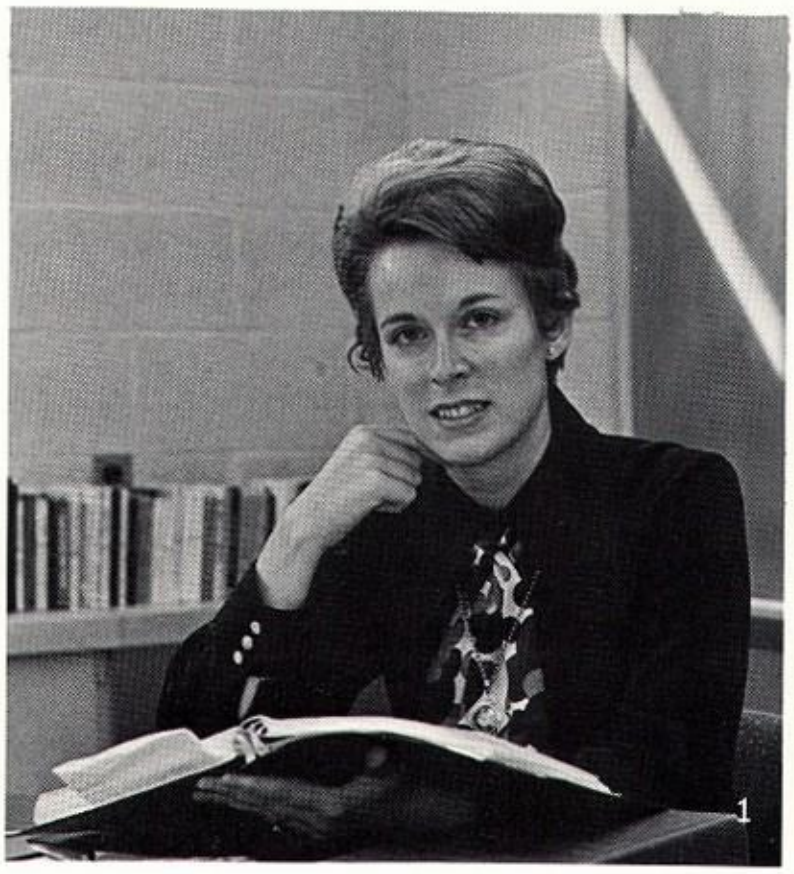
The board of education sets up our educational policies and our basic standards. It is its job, also, to see that these policies and standards are carried out.

As guidance counselors, Mrs. Novak and Mr. Dulin aid the student with any problems he may have, while helping each class as a whole. They set up interviews with college representatives so that the student might get a first-hand look at that school. They also set up testing programs for the students.

These people and their jobs are of great necessity to our school. They are very important, and the school could not function without their aid.

1. Helen Beidelchies, clerk-treasurer to Wynford Board of Education. Judy Gilliland, secretary to the superintendent.
2. Board of Education: ROW 1: Darl Keller, Charles Crall, Claude Young, Milton Kuenzli. ROW 2: William Donnenwirth, superintendent; Carl Miller, president; Helen Beidelchies, clerk-treasurer.
3. Ruby Cover, secretary to the principal.
4. Gene Dulin, Joan Novak, counselors.

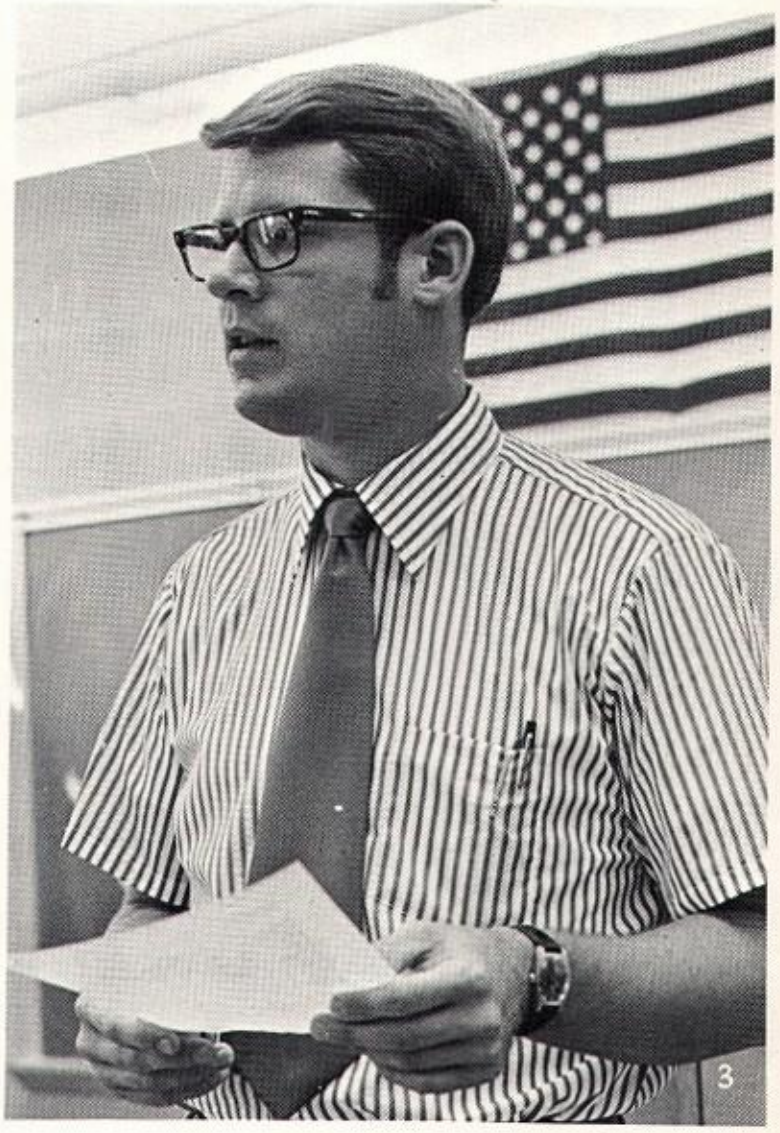
Language — 26 Letters Alone, Abstract; Rearranged, Communicate



The language department was striving for a deeper involvement, understanding, and appreciation in literature this year. While reviewing basic gramatical structure, different skills were being emphasised rather than those which have been learned in previous years.

This year our goals in self-expression and in literature were reached through term papers, class discussions, themes, and plays.

Language is communication, both written and spoken; it helps to "bring us all together."



1. Margaret Thornton teaches Sophomore English. She received her B.S. from Westland College, West Virginia, and is doing graduate work at Bowling Green State University.

2. Frances Shaffer teaches Freshman and Senior English, and Speech. She received her B.A. from Ohio Northern University.

3. William Markey instructs all classes of Junior English. He received his B.A. from Findlay College.

1. Larry Borland teaches Spanish I, II, III and Business and Freshman English. He received his B.S. and M.E. from B.G.S.U.

2. Eunice Kuenzli instructs Latin I, II and Freshman English classes. She received her B.A. from O.N.U.

Science — Our Urge to Discover What Is Beyond, Below, and About Us

What's in this plot of ground? Is H_2CO_3 really the formula for carbonic acid? How does gravity make things float? These were only a few of the many things our science classes were learning this year. And these, among others, were learned in the class - room, through experiments, and from first hand experience on field trips.

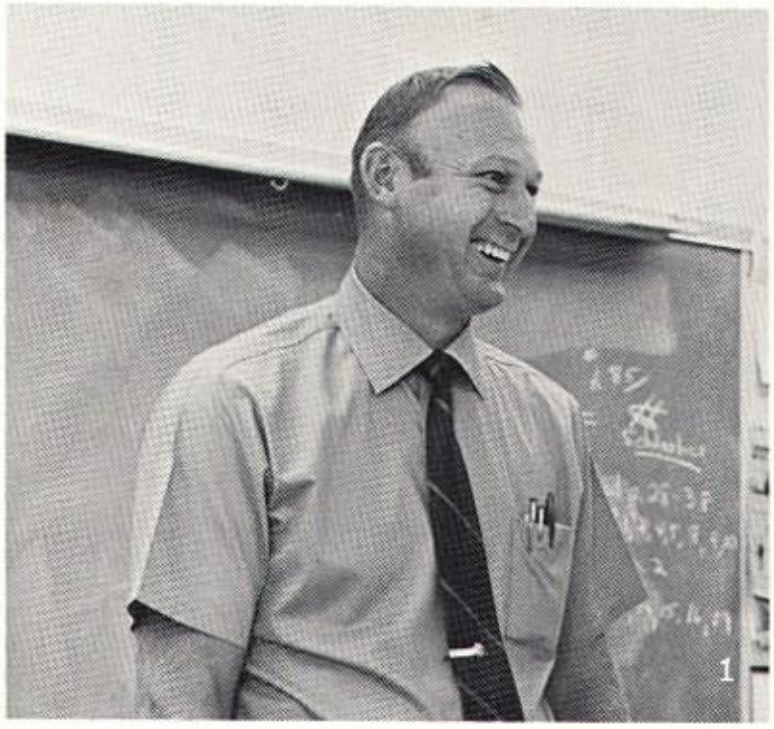
This very practical field leads us to new inventions and discoveries. Most all of our environmental and social problems are placed in the hands of the scientists, and their success determines our progress.

3. Glen Smith has General Science classes. He received his A.B. from Olivet Nazarene College.

4. Thomas Naftzger teaches General Science, Chemistry, and Physics. He received his B.S. from O.S.U.

5. Charles Campbell instructs Biology and Adv. Biology classes. He received his B.S. from Findlay College.

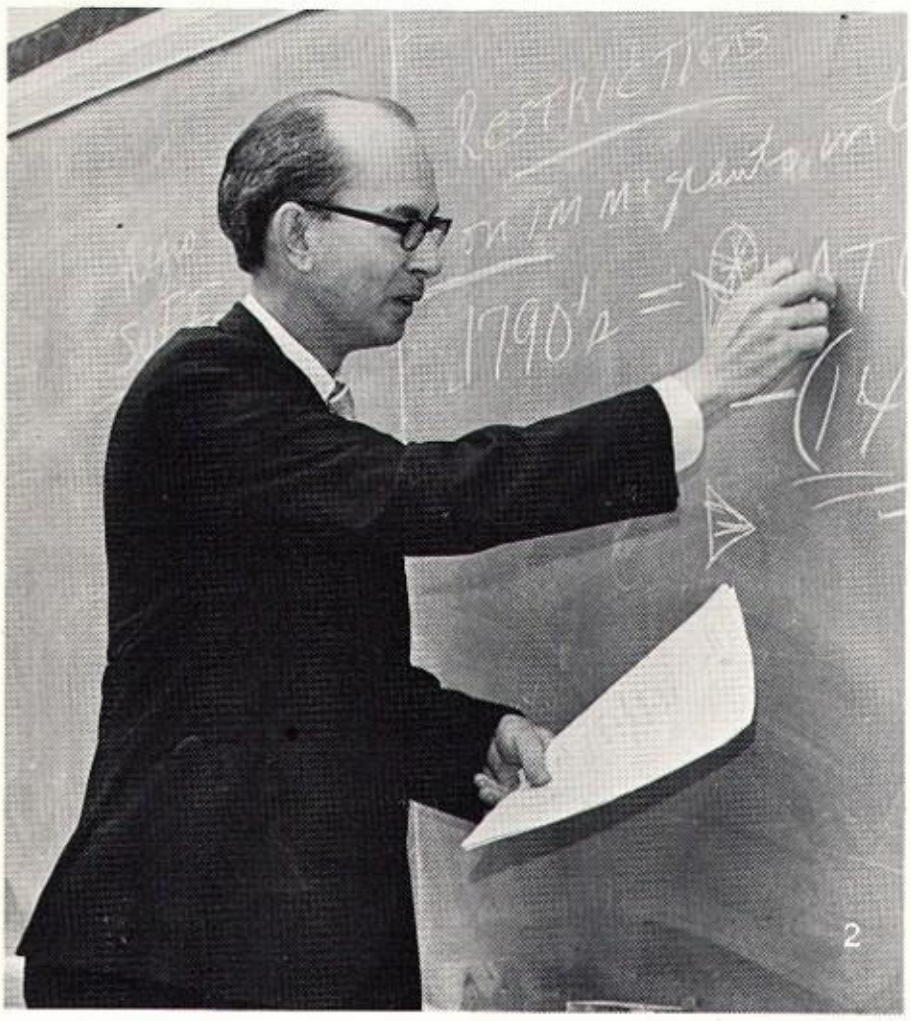
Civics and Math Provide Greater Understanding of Our Modern World

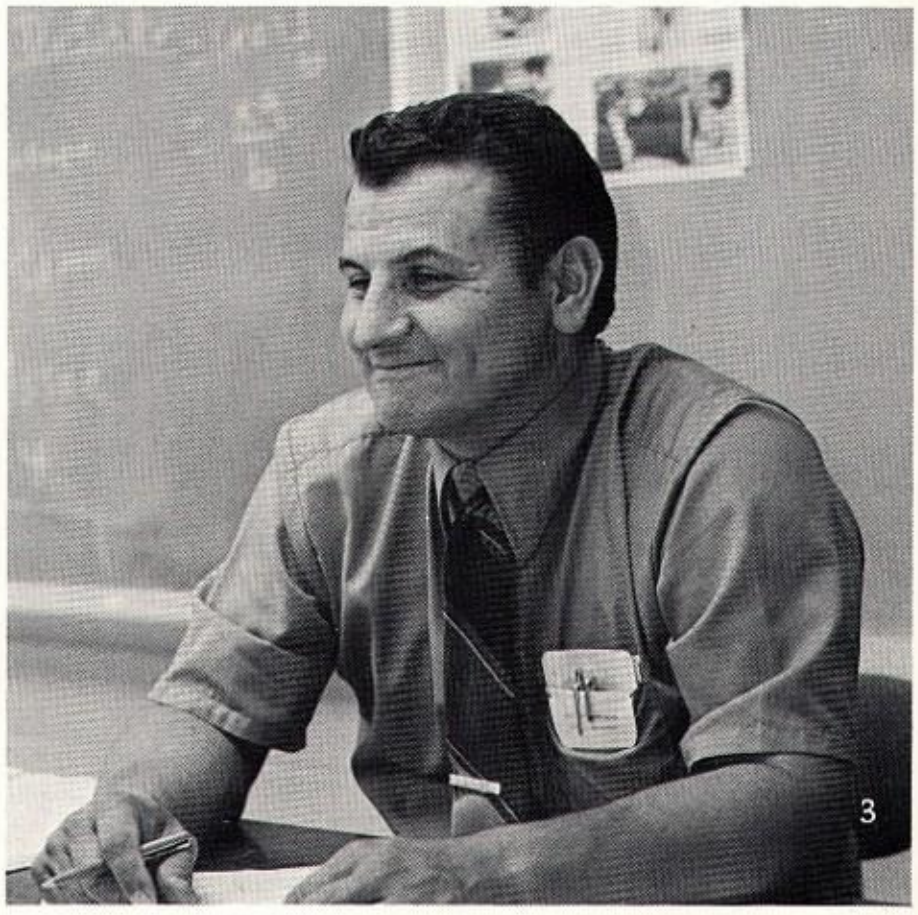


Everyone is free to learn in a democracy, and teachers are free to draw upon all the great store of human knowledge and opinion. Mr. Bauer, Mr. Dilley, and Mr. Thornton taught that in a government of the people, by the people, and for the people, a heavy responsibility rests on every citizen to take part in civil affairs to the best of his ability.

Mr. Rothhaar and Mr. Lyon brought about great challenges to their students this year. These students, in their search for knowledge, found these challenges in general math, Algebra I, II, geometry, and advanced math.

Math helps us to use our abilities to reason and think for ourselves. It is the science of numbers, and their operations can be put to general application through everyday use.





1. James Bauer teaches American Government. He obtained his B.A. from Marietta College and his Masters at Bowling Green State University.

2. Karl Dilley teaches American and World History. He received his education at Otterbein College and his M.S. from Bowling Green State University.

3. Dwight Rothhaar instructs Algebra II, Plane Geometry and Trigonometry. He got his B.S. in Ed. from Heidelberg College and did Post Graduate Work at the University of Montana.

1. Norman Lyon teaches General Math and Algebra I. He received his B.S. from Ohio State University and did Post Graduate Work at Ohio Wesleyan University and Western Michigan University.

2. George Thornton teaches American Government, American History, and Psychology. He received his B.A. from West Virginia Wesleyan College and at present is working toward his Masters at Bowling Green State University.

Consumer Education and Homemaking, for a Rewarding Home Life.

Consumber Education and Homemaking is now the official name given to the Home Ec. Department. This year a change was made which offered the juniors and seniors sewing, cooking, child development, and home furnishings. These classes teach the girls to shop wisely for products and to get the most for their money.

3. Linda Bowlby teaches Home Economics II and III. She received her B.S. in Home Ed. from Ohio State University.

4. Ellen Schiefer teaches Home Economics I and IV. She obtained her B.S. in Home Ec. from Bowling Green State University.

Business, Vocational Classes Offer Students

1. Wallace Enders teaches Industrial Arts. He received his B. S. in Ed. from Ohio State University.

2. James Neff instructs Ag. Business and Production Agriculture I, II, IV. He received his B. S. and M. A. from Ohio State University.

3. Russell Heft teaches Industrial Arts. He obtained his B. S. from Otterbein College and his M. A. from Ohio State University.

4. Ronald Rindfuss teaches Motor Mechanics III IV and Production Agriculture II. He received his B. S. in Agriculture from Ohio State University.

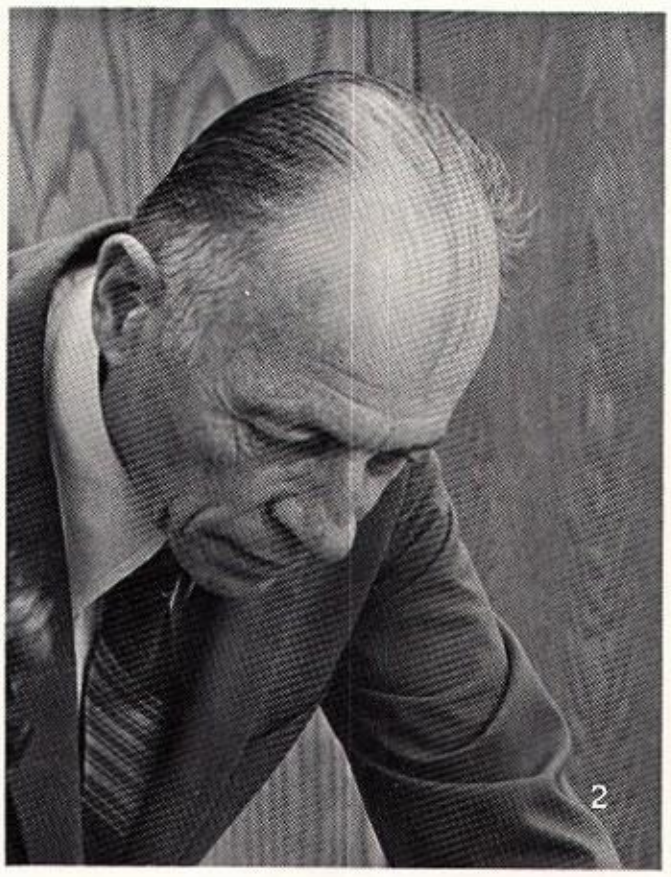
Courses Dealing with Office Routine, Farm and Shop Experience

These vocational courses offered the students a chance to ready themselves for the outside world in which they will soon play a very active and important role.

The students were given the opportunity to express their ideas, thoughts, and feelings through the works they constructed. Much more is learned and better understood when an active part is played. These courses gave the student on the spot experiences.

IOE classes help to prepare their students for duties preformed daily in offices, providing typing, shorthand, and filing which are a few things involved in an office routine.

All these courses help cast a little light onto the dark, unforseen future, making it just a little warmer and brighter.



1. Ronald Suter teaches Mechanical Drawing. At present he is attending Ohio State University.

2. Dale Zeller instructs Typing I, II, and Shorthand. He received his B.S. in Ed. and his Masters from Bliss College and the University of Cincinnati.

3. Evelyn Kiess teaches Business Math, Bookkeeping, and IOE II. She obtained her B.S. in Business Ed. from Bowling Green State University.

4. Larry Schiefer teaches IOE I, Applied Economics, Bookkeeping, and Business Law. He received his B.S. from Ohio State University.

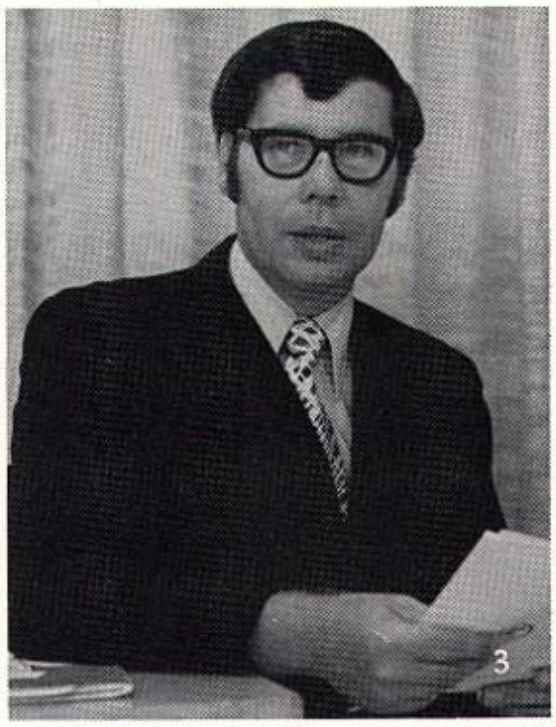
Music and Art, a Way to the Future Through Self-Expression, Work.

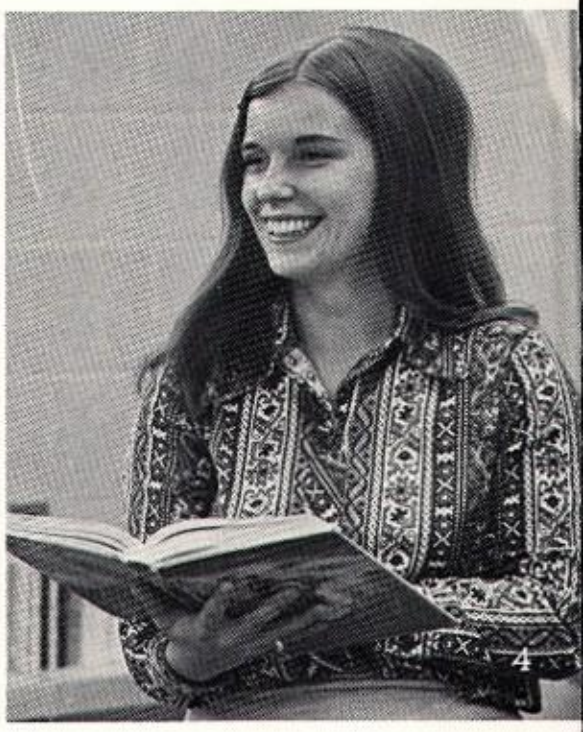
Music, art, and physical education offer students a welcome relief from a hectic day.

Once again the musical talents of the students have been evident through the year. The marching band has again presented tremendous half-time shows. The Royal Singers performed many times around the area at banquets and church functions. The choirs presented a Christmas concert which included a tableau. The senior choir also sang in several area churches this spring.

The art classes began by learning the basic fundementals of drawing and artistic form. Having once learned these, the classes progressed to projects corresponding with various periods of art such as the Impressionistic era, Cubism, and Op-Art.

The physical education teachers strove to build a sound physical fitness program this year. Besides the usual sports of baseball, football, and basketball, such activities as volleyball, gymnastics, archery, tennis, and interpretive dance were also involved.





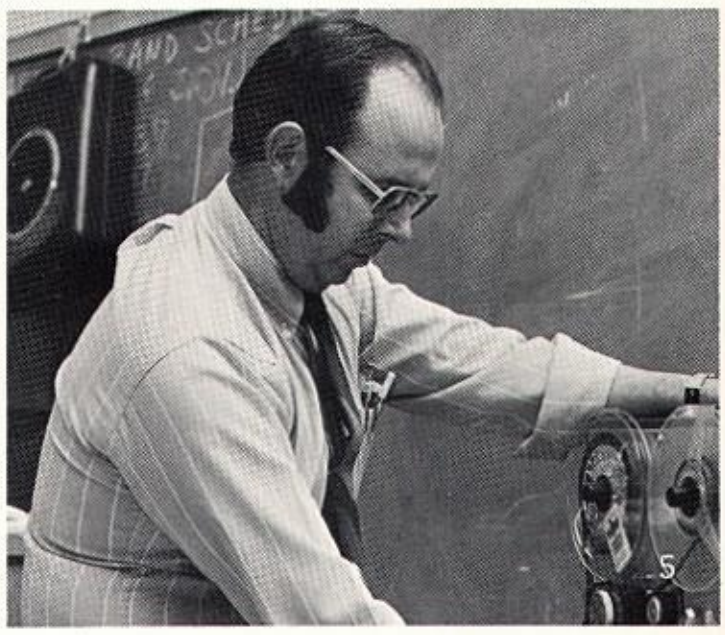
1. Clifford Klein teaches Art I, II, III, IV, and Art Fundementals. He received his B.S. from Marietta College.

2. Nicholas Kajca instructs Boys' Physical Ed., and World Geography. He obtained his B.S. from Defiance College.

3. John Raymaley is the Vocal Music Director. He received his B.M. from Heidelberg and his M.A., Prof. Diploma from Columbia University.

4. Debbie Edinger teaches Girls' Physical Ed., and Health. She received her H.P.E.R. from Findlay College.

5. Arvine Kindinger is the Instrumental Music Director. He obtained his B.M. from Heidelberg College.



Required Staff Members Provide Vital Services

Mrs. Schrader provided special training needed to guide her pupils to become responsible citizens. Her special help and training were a valuable contribution to Wynford.

Mrs. Noblet supervised the management of the library, which is the school's center of learning. Much organization and assistance were dependent upon the high school librarian.

The study hall students for the first time this year at Wynford had a monitor, Mrs. Marjorie Armbruster. Her help was greatly appreciated.

The bus drivers, janitors, cooks, and dietitian were a valuable part of our school. Without the dedication of these important staff members, our school could not efficiently operate.

1. Cooks: H. Wilson, H. Denison, J. Welch, M. Hackney, O. Rindfuss.
2. Janitors: Ray Brooks, Bill Hahn.
3. Elizabeth Schrader teaches Special Ed. She received her B.S. and M.E. in Special Ed. from B.G.S.U.
4. Sylvia Noblet, librarian, received her B.A. in Ed. from Muskingum College.
5. Bus Drivers: C. Ruffner, E. Croneis, P. Tschanen, D. Robinson, J. Scott, J. Montgomery, B. Shaffer, D. Shroll, E. Leitzy.
6. Velma Dickey, Cafeteria Supervisor.
7. Marjorie Armbruster, Study Hall Monitor, received her Ed. Aid Training from Ohio State.

The 122-member senior class has finally completed their required twelve years of education. Although it was a hectic and time-consuming final year, all agreed that they enjoyed the year as one of the best.

The Commencement and Baccalaureate exercises were held May 21, 1972. That day will always remain embedded in their minds as a day of recognition and fulfillment.

The Class of 1972 will always remember Wynford High and their many experiences there.

Juniors

The Junior year is surely an exciting and busy year for all Juniors! The Juniors were responsible for the Christmas assembly, and most important of all, the prom. Busy working to earn money for the prom, Juniors sold Rex and spent many hours working in coat checks and concessions. The Juniors presented "The Many Loves of Dobie Gillis" with a cast of talented characters for their class play.

Sophomores

The Sophomore class has been busy this year earning the reputation of being a hardworking group of students. Responsible for the Easter assembly, the Sophomores exhibited a fine program. The Sophomores were also in charge of a few of the basketball concessions. Many of the members of this class are especially excited by the fact that they will be receiving their recently ordered class rings in just a few months.

Freshmen

As the class of '75 entered the doors of Wynford High School August 31, the doors of various activities and organizations were opened to them for the first time.

The freshmen became involved in various forms of athletics and comprised much of the pep club and pep band. They also supported the musical activitires and vocational organizations, FHA and FFA.

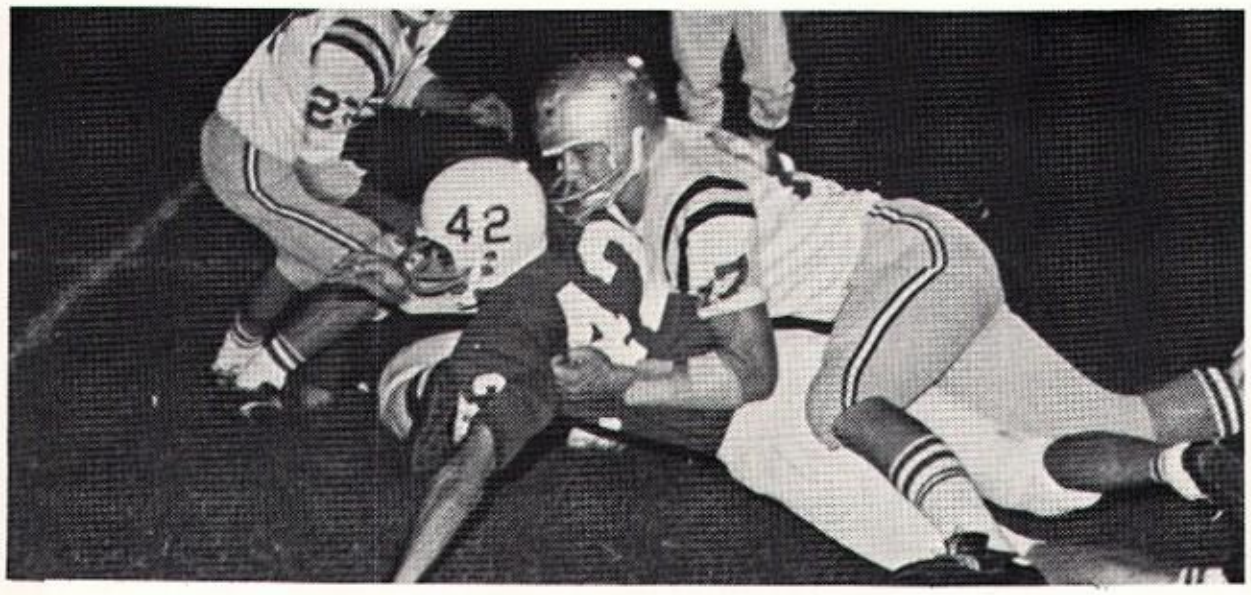
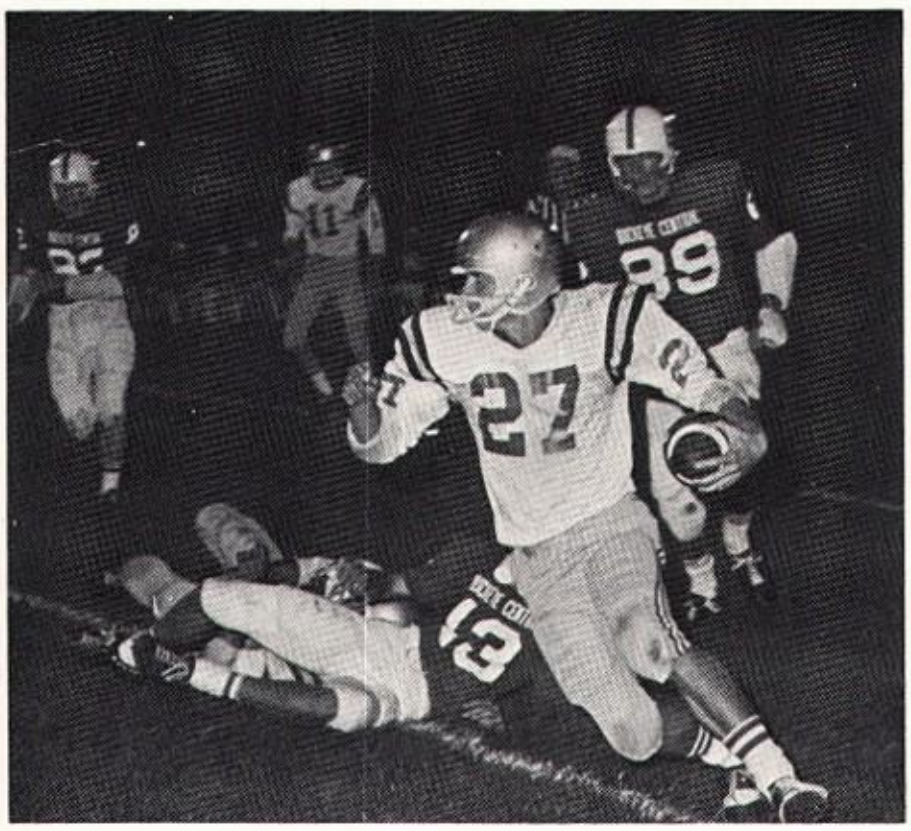
The Royals again this year ended with a disappointing 3-6 record. This, however, was not indicative of the Royals' strength, for they seemed to play their best when faced with the stronger opponents. In these rougher games, such as against Riverdale and Pleasant, the Royals fought courageously, but in vain, against the even greater forces facing them.

The loss of several players hurt the Royals this season. Don Fadley suffered a dislocated shoulder early in the season and was unable to return to action. Brad Stahl, with a slight skull fracture, was able to play in the last game against Carey. Dan Whitmeyer's knee injury was perhaps one of the most crippling handicaps to the team.



The Royals' defense is strong against the foe.



Chuck Gerhart led this year in yardage and scoring.

Seniors Finish High School Career as Gerhart, Risner Honored in NCC

Chuck Gerhart was the standout on offense as he gained over 800 yeard for the season. He also set a new school record in scoring with 40 points against River Valley. All-NCC along with Chuck was Larry Risner. He led the defense with his guarding as it tried to hold the opposition. All the seniors, individually, were a great contributing factor to this year's season.

Seniors lead the way.

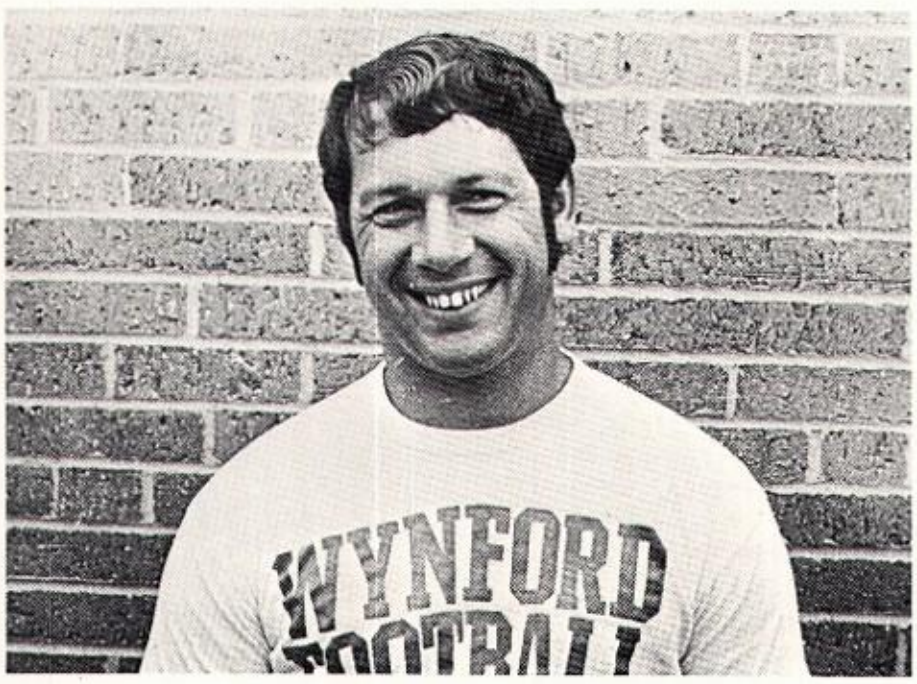
Behind Every Player, Team is Work of Diligent Line, Back, Head Coaches



Head Coach - Cliff Klein

The football players would be lost without coaches to guide them. The Wynford squad has six coaches, each specializing in his best area.

Mr. Campbell and Mr. Don Miller work with the linemen, while Mr. Campbell also coaches the defense. Mr. Raymaley handles the backs as they work out handoffs, passing and running techniques. Mr. Larry Miller and Mr. Kajca coach the freshmen.

Cliff Klein, head coach, has the job of synchronizing the efforts of all the coaches and players to produce a well-balanced team.

Freshmen Contribute to Fall Sports Scene with Undefeated 1971 Season

The freshmen fielded only fifteen boys this season, but produced one of the finest freshmen teams ever at Wynford. Undefeated and untied in six games, they mutilated almost every opponent they faced.

The team was sparked by the running of Dave Reffey and Dan Gerhart, the quarter-backing of Tim Steinhilber, and the tackling of Bob Clark and Eric Campbell. The team had one of its players, Tod Stahl, promoted to varsity.

This is probably one of the finest groups of players Wynford has had, and it is hoped they will continue winning in years to come.

Wynford	24	Colonel Crawford	31
Wynford	18	Mohawk	41

The Wynford Cross-Country team had, by far, their finest season this year. In the fourth year of varsity running for Wynford, the squad qualified its first team for district competition. It produced the first winning team, also. This year was the first time that the Royals defeated Colonel Crawford with a score of 24-31.

Paul Keller and Mickey Kent, the squad's only seniors, did much in earning Wynford its good finish in the sectional meet. A third place out of 16 AA schools qualified the team for the district meet.

Varsity Cheerleaders, Royal Majorettes, Seniors Promote Wynford Spirit

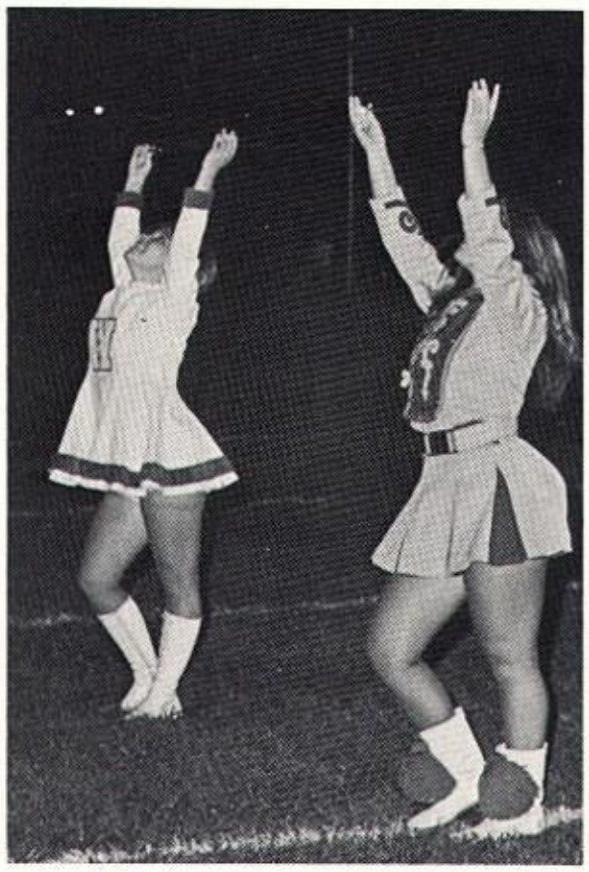
VARSITY CHEERLEADERS: K. Schifer, D. Reed, B. Bardon, C. Pritchard, J. Walton. Absent from picture, J. Castanien.

The Varsity cheerleaders this year were under the direction and advise of Miss Edinger, Girls' Physical Education instructor. The squad tried several changes to strengthen school spirit, one by making all pep assemblies voluntary.

The majorettes included Becky Lawrence Debbie Kissling, Joy Bender, Molly Emick, Joyce Croneis, and Sue Makeever. Headed by Becky Lawrence, they lead the way for the Royals Marching Band in its performances of many thrilling half-time shows.

The senior band members played at many pep assemblies during the football season under a gray and blue banner saying "Senior Power."

All of these were vital factors in creating a greater sense of enthusiasm for the Royals and have established, hopefully, a new tradition in school spirit which will be followed in years to come.



Head majorettes Debbie Kissling and Becky Lawrence lead the band onto the field.

New Uniforms Give New Look for Wynford Royal Band this 1971 Season

Hang on Royals!

This year the Wynford Marching Band added a new touch with the purchase of new uniforms. They consisted of gray trousers, white hats, and white shoulder awnings to go with the older coats and overlays.

The band marched 72 members with only 3 alternates. Various shows of the season included: "Salute to Louis Armstrong," "Signs of the Times," and "Showcase for Band."

The band also participated in a marching band festival at Heidelberg College, in which it was chosed as one of the three bands to perform at half-time.

1971 Football Homecoming Queen Before Game Between Wynford, Mohawk

Co-captain Dairel Kaiser congratulates the 1971 Homecoming Queen, Sandy Seckel.

The second football homecoming queen at Wynford High School was Miss Sandy Seckel, 17, a senior. Miss Seckel was representing the F.F.A. for the crown.

The ceremony was held before the game between the Wynford Royals and Mohawk Warriors on October 1, 1971.

The 1971 homecoming candidates were selected to represent various school organizations. The top five were voted on my the student body.

After being crowned by Co-captain Dan Whitmeyer, Queen Sandy received congratulations and a bouquet of red roses from Dairel Kaiser.

A good performance was presented by the Wynford Royals Marching Band during the halftime of the Wynford-Mohawk game. The halftime show was a salute to Louis Armstrong.

Along with the crowning ceremony of Friday night, the Homecoming activities included a dance. The semiformal dance was held in the high school cafeteria following the game. All the student body and alumni of Wynford and their guests were invited to attend the dance for which the John Kennedy Band provided the music.

F.F.A. representative, Sandy Seckel, awaits for the Homecoming results.

A happy and excited Sandy receives the crown and roses from the co-captains.

Miss Debi Reed Reigns as Crawford County Queen of Mardi Gras

Our candidate for Mardi Gras Queen, Debi Reed, won the title of Miss Crawford County on October 27th. Four area schools were in the competition.

The girls were interviewed by a panel of four judges. The candidates were asked questions about their schools and outside organizations. Along with their interview, the girls were also judged on poise, personality, and other areas.

Wynford's representative, Debi Reed, becomes Miss Crawford County 1971.

A happy and excited Debi receives the crown and roses at the Crawford County Mardi Gras.

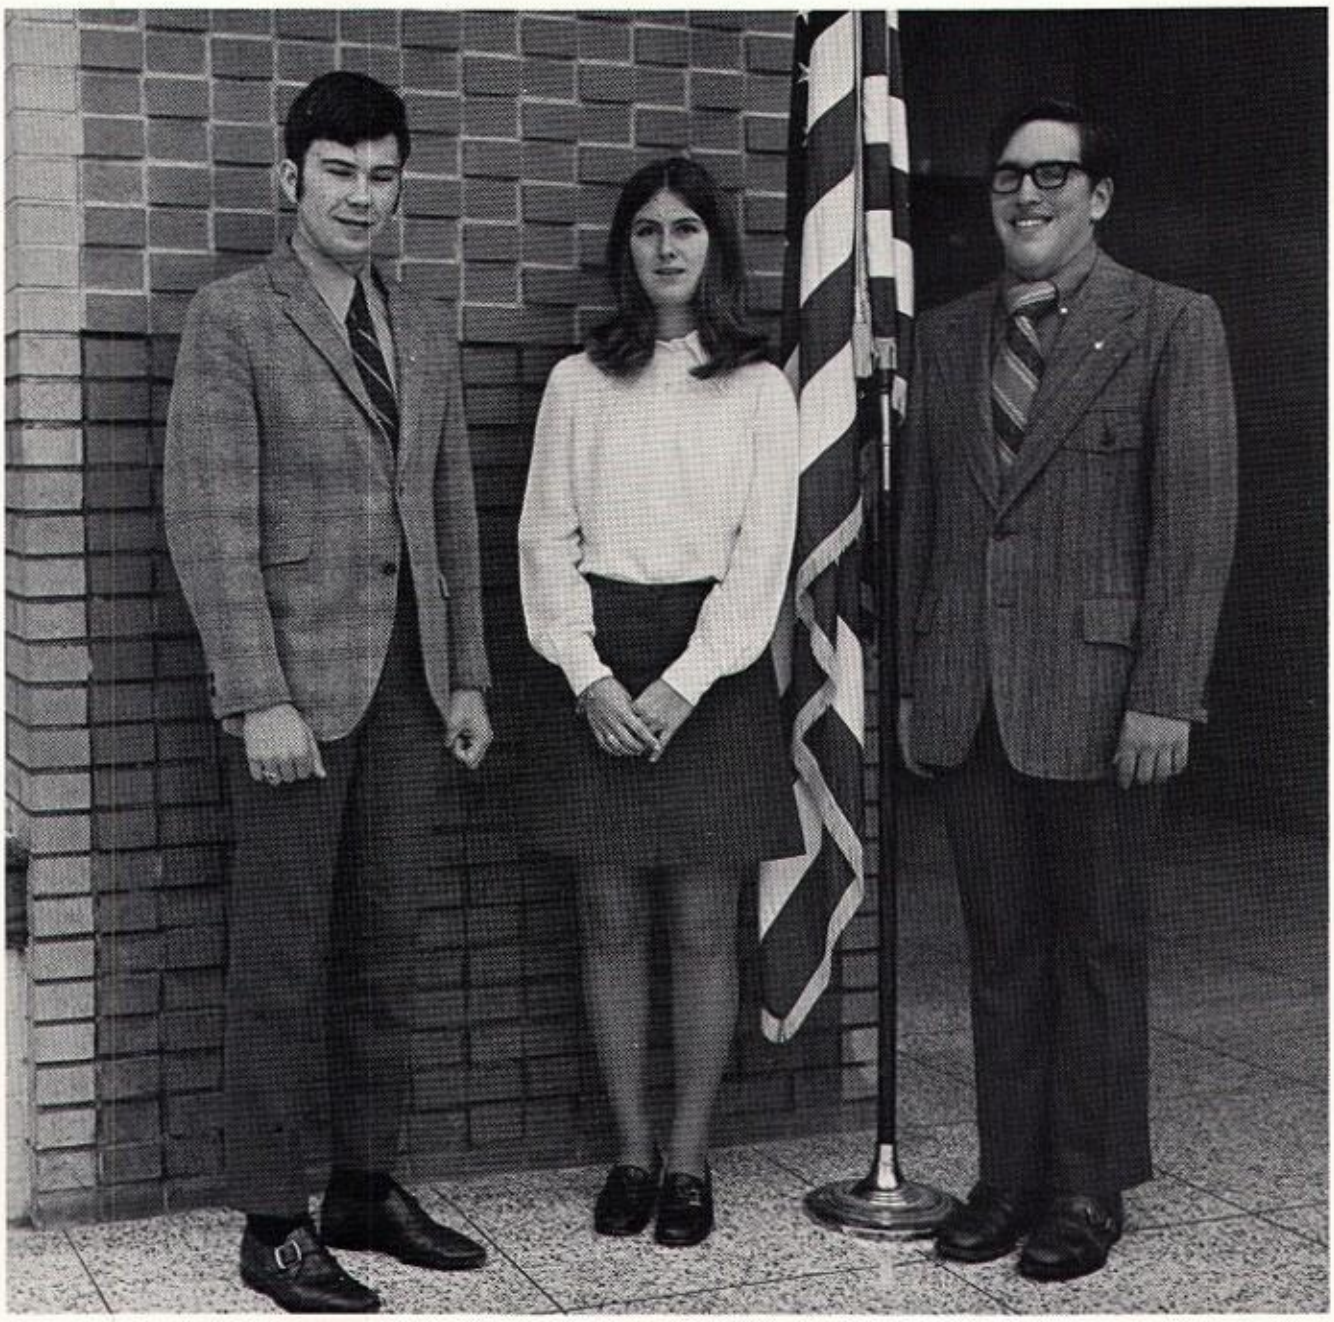
A good performance was achieved by the Wynford Royals Marching Band at the 1971 Mardi Gras Festival.

Buckeye Boys', Girls' State Attended by Three Wynford Seniors in June

Buckeye Girls' State is an Americanism project. The purpose of the eight-day workshop, held at Capital University, is to educate young women in the duties, rights, and responsibilities of American Citizenship. Jill Kindinger attended the convention and was elected to city council.

Buckeye Boys' State, held every June at Ashland College, is the largest of these American Legion sponsored organizations in the nation. Those boys attending the convention were Doug Mutchler and Randy Zellner.

At the convention, party caucuses were held with officials being elected to offices. Randy Zellner was elected town councilman and Doug Mutchler was elected Chief of Meat Inspection. They learned and put to use information about the government.



Wynford's representatives to Buckeye Boys' and Girls' State are Randy Zellner, Jill Kindinger, and Doug Mutchler.

Miss Joan Gibb Wins First Place in Voice of Democracy Speech Contest

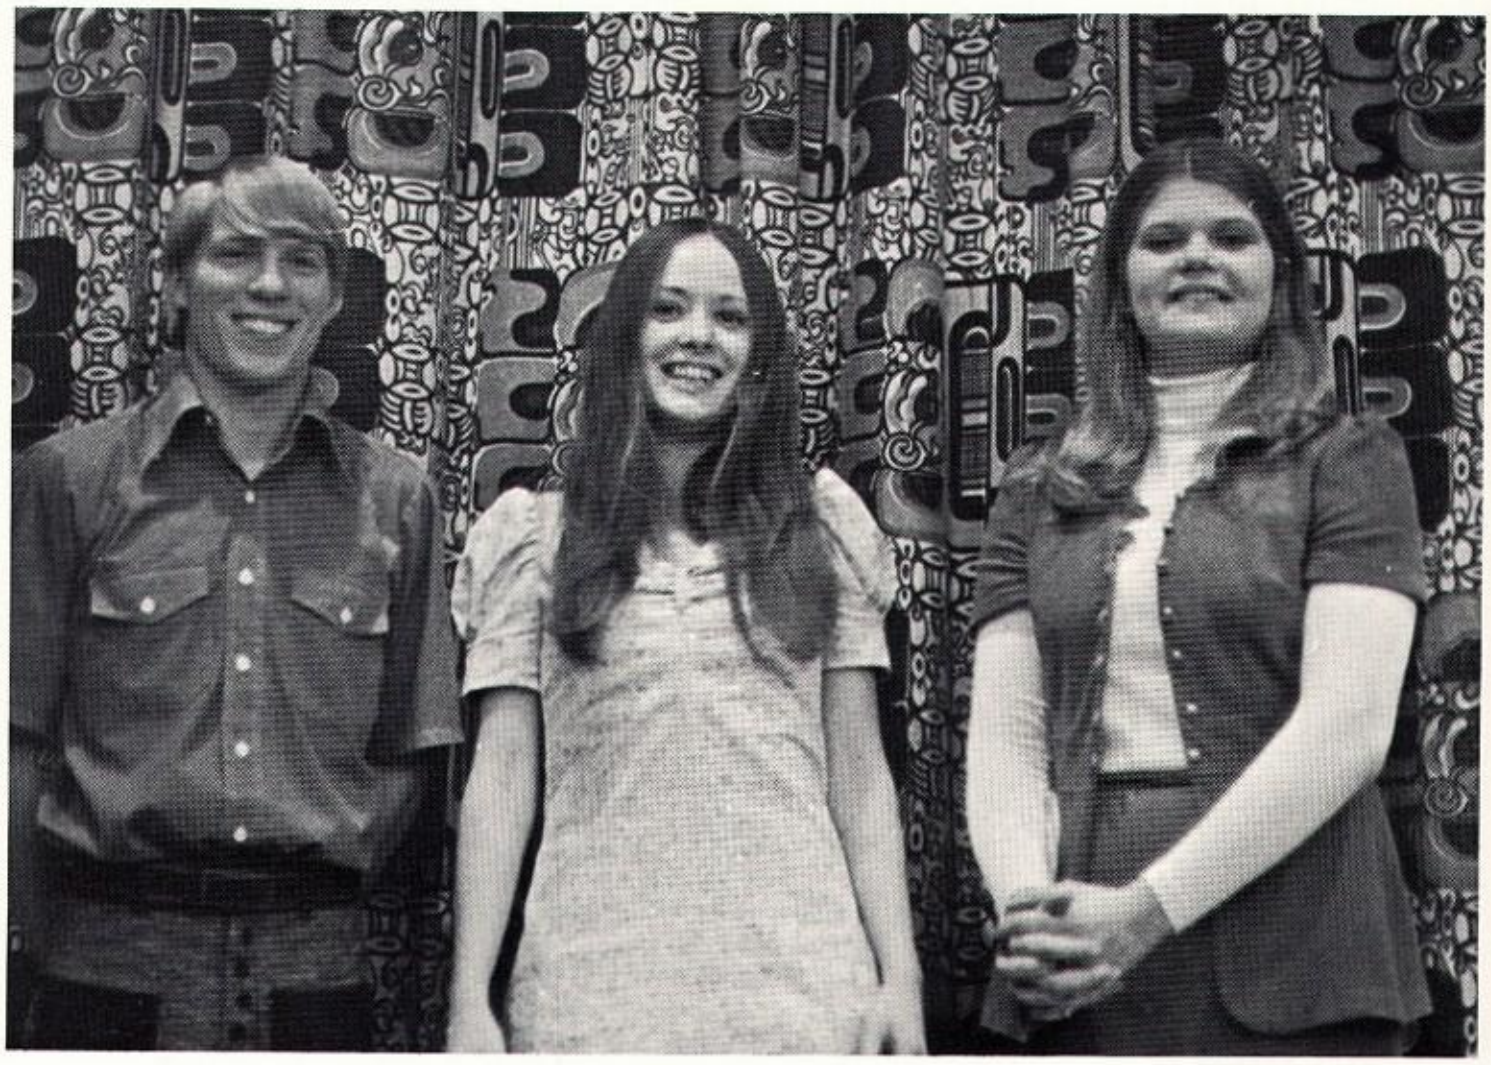
First place winner, Joan Gibb.

The Voice of Democracy contest, sponsored by the American Legion, was held at Wynford, with students entering from the speech and government classes. The theme this year was "My Responsibility to Freedom."

The winners at Wynford were as follows: first, Joan Gibb; second, Lila Reinhard; third, Doug Leuthold. Other students in the top five were Cheryl Brown and Paul Keller. All speeches were very well done and deserved much credit.

The top three winners from Wynford competed with students from Bucyrus High School to determine the county winner. Joan Gibb placed first, Doug Leuthold second, and Lila Reinhard was third. Joan then advanced to District competition.

The contestants had to comply with certain rules and regulations set up by the American Legion. Each speech was to be no less than three minutes nor more than five minutes in length. Each speech had to have a positive approach.



Voice of Democracy winners, Doug Leuthold, Joan Gibb, and Lila Reinhard.

n Giving "The Many Loves of Dobie Gillis," a Great Presentation

To Dobie, Bonnie is still the most beautiful girl.

On November 19 and 20, 1971, the Junior Class rendered its comedy presentation of the play "The Many Loves of Dobie Gillis." The play was under the direction of Mr. Ronald Sutor and student directors Cherrie Downard, Debbie Malcolm, and Donna Clark.

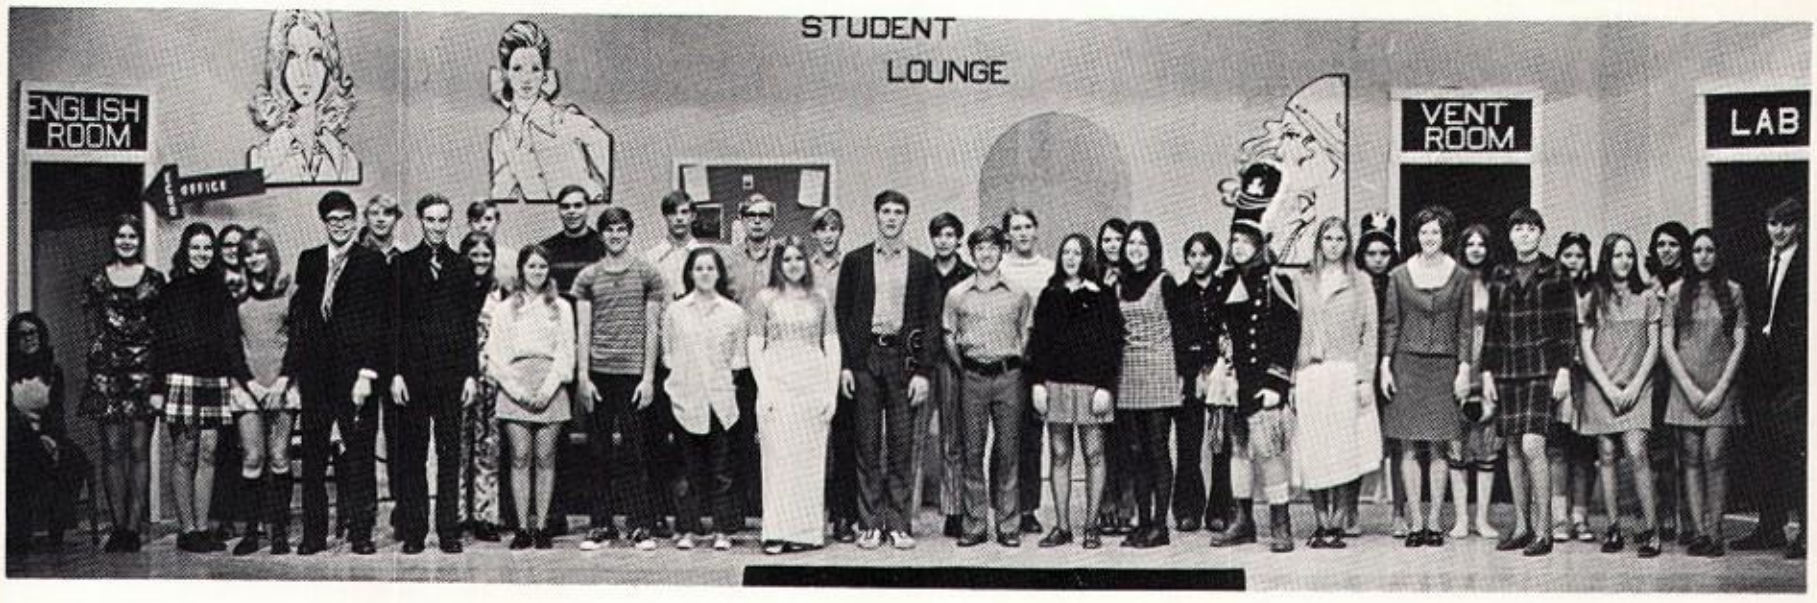
The setting was the student lounge in Salmon P. Chase High School in St. Paul, Minnesota. The play was based on the problems and the loves of Dobie Gillis.

Dobie wished very much that Helen Dixon would notice him for himself and not for his genius brain. To have his wish come true, Dobie had to conquer two things: first, to get Helen to notice him; second, to outwit Petey Bellows. Everyone at Chase knew Helen and Petey were practically going steady.

All through the play Dobie got himself into more trouble than what he was worth. Bonnie Willet was always there to help him out, but Dobie didn't understand why. If he would only have stopped mooning over "anthracite-eyed" Helen, he might have realized how Bonnie felt.

Several off-beat characters accented the presentation. The list was headed by Happy Stella Kowalski and the Schotsy Five, who rescued Dobie from Limbo.

Happy Stella Kowalski and the Schotsy Five stare in wonder at Limbo.



Much hard work and effort was shone throughout the play by the cast in "The Many Loves of Dobie Gillis."

From Gutter Balls to Strikes, Student Use Spare Time to Improve

Did you see that ball make all the pins go tumbling?

Many Wynford students enjoyed bowling this year. The freshmen and sophomores bowled on Tuesdays and the juniors and seniors bowled on Thursdays.

The advisers this year were Miss Edinger and Mr. Lyon. They helped in scoring and organizing the teams and were present on every bowling night.

At the end of the regular bowling season, the top five girl bowlers and the top five boy bowlers represented Wynford in the tournaments. They competed against other teams for the county championship.

The sport was quite successful this year with thirteen freshman and sophomore teams of five members each and sixteen teams of junior and senior bowlers.

Joining the pep band this year in the promotion of school spirit were two newly-organized pep clubs.

The pep band members, with their instrumental talents, provided music for the halftimes at all home games and backed up the cheerleaders.

The girls' pep club, under the leadership of officers M. Bennett, pres.; K. Hornak, v. pres.; K. Eppley, sec.-treas.; and Miss Edinger, adviser, did its share in supporting the team and arousing school spirit with pom-pom routines and cheers. The girls' outfits consisted of navy Wynford Royals sweaters, navy knee-socks, gray culottes, and white gloves.

The boys' pep club decided to call themselves the Royal Power Company. Due to their original techniques and cheers, they became quite popular at pep rallies and games. The boys cheered at both home and away games.

The Varsity "W" Club this year consisted of 32 members who have each earned their varsity letters. Churches, School Concerts; Royal Singers Entertain Civic Groups

The duo of Dairel Kaiser and Becky Johnson make beautiful music together.

This year the senior choir increased in size to 85 members. Mr. Raymaley, the choir director, felt the larger group would provide more power and greater sound. The talents of the organization were put to use in singing at several churches and concerts.

Performing for various churches, schools, and civic functions were the Royal Singers. The group, in its second year, consisted of senior choir members showing a proficiency in performing.

Since the choir was larger, the Royal Singers took over some of its singing engagements. One of the group's highlights of the year was a Christmas program performed with the Thespians at the Crawford County Children's Home.

The Royal Singers succeeded in increasing the choir fund substantially through their entertainment. The money helped significantly in paying for the additional robes, necessary due to the larger choir.

The freshman choir also made a good showing in their first year together. The members added their assistance in producing some fine musical concerts.

Performs Services, Improves Sportsmanship of Girls at Wynford High

G. A. A. OFFICERS: ROW 1: M. Leuthold, Sec.; M. Barnes, News Rept.; S. Croneis, V. Pres. ROW 2: E. Gerhart, Treas.; M. Bennett, Pres.; Miss Edinger, Adviser.

The Girls' Athletic Association is an organization at Wynford for sports-minded girls. Each year they organize volleyball, basketball, and track teams. Many girls participate on these interscholastic teams which provide fine competition. They believe that girls should have sports opportunities equal to those of the boys.

Several of this year's activities were the G. A. A. barn party, a volleyball "playday" held at Galion High School, and contributing $25.00 to the Levy Advertising Fund. They also went caroling and set up a Christmas tree at the Crawford County Home.

With the aid of their new adviser, they set up a new point system based on sportsmanship and participation in G. A. A. activities. At the end of the year, these points were tallied and awards were presented at the annual Mother-Daughter Awards Banquet.

Interscholastic Volleyball, Basketball Teams Show Fine Competition

There were three volleyball teams this year, freshman, junior varsity, and varsity, under the supervision of their new coach, Miss Edinger. Her new ideas brought added enthusiasm and ability to the Royalettes. They totaled six regular games and ended the season with a tournament at Galion.

The basketball teams, including varsity and junior varsity, had a total of five regular games. With so few girls, the team can be commended as doing quite well.

Office Help and Librarians Apply Their Spare Time to Aid Personnel

The office helpers and librarians aided everyone in the school by putting their spare time to work. The office helpers helped the guidance counselors, secretary, and attendance officer by running errands for them. The librarians assisted Mrs. Noblet by checking out books and helping other students find information that they need. They also decorated the showcases near the library. These students aided in the efficient running of the school.

Los Conquistadores Show Real Spanish Spirit in Their Club Projects

This year's Spanish Club, Los Conquistadores, spent their first few meetings planning and organizing. Members approved a constitution with which the club was to be governed by their newly-elected officers: C. Monroe, pres.; K. Ruth, v. pres.; W. Sipe, sec.; and R. Young, treas. The members also spent a lot of time collecting various candy and gum wrappers for project UNICEF. The Christmas spirit was enjoyed at the annual caroling held on December 23.

nvolves Activities for Wide, Varied Programs

The Wynford F. H. A. replaced many old traditions with new ones that proved to be more exciting in many ways.

A tupperware party was held to raise money for the chapter. The Christmas Caroling was invaded by the F. F. A. with a party being held afterwards. An exchange program was held with the Col. Crawford F. H. A.

A children's party was also held. The chapter made many favors for the rest homes in Wyandot County. The annual Sweetheart dance was combined with the Student Council's Homecoming dance this year. The F. H. A. again helped collect money for the heartfund drive.

The annual banquet was held this Spring. At this banquet the various awards were handed out and the Seniors were honored. A style show was also held which included the rest of the Home Ec. Department.

In June, the F. H. A. took their annual tour. They were also in charge of the Jr. Fair King and Queen interviews for this year's Crawford County Fair.

LAND JUDGING: J. Nickelson, M. Welch, R. Weisenauer.

The sixty-nine member FFA completed many projects this year. They painted barns during the summer and early fall, and sold cider during the fall. With the profit they got from selling citrus fruit, they were able to complete the fence at Fairway School and Workshop. They also sold Vital seeds and basketball programs.

This year they went Christmas Caroling with the FHA. The FFA won first place in both divisions of public speaking. The Freshmen won first place in the parliamentary procedure contest in the county. Starting in April they had their own radio program of soil temperature, rainfall measurements, and degree days.

SENIOR I.O.E.: ROW 1: L. Knodell; P. Spore; L. Albert. ROW 2: M. Jackson; D. Jones; N. Linn; J. Weisenaur; K. Sheaffer;

Under the guidance of Evelyn Kiess and Larry Schiefer, the students in the two I.O.E. classes learned the necessary skills to prepare themselves for the business world. But they also learned much more--about people and service.

The classes got the spirit rolling by organizing a pep club for the football games. Their list of projects which helped people included: collecting clothing and canned food which was sent to the needy in Stewart, Ohio, to make their Christmas merrier; typing programs and articles for various groups; and typing the school newspaper.

The officers were J. Castanien, pres.; G. Harris, v. pres.; M. Smith, sec.; D. Malcolm, treas.; D. Rule, hist.; and B. Cooley, parl.

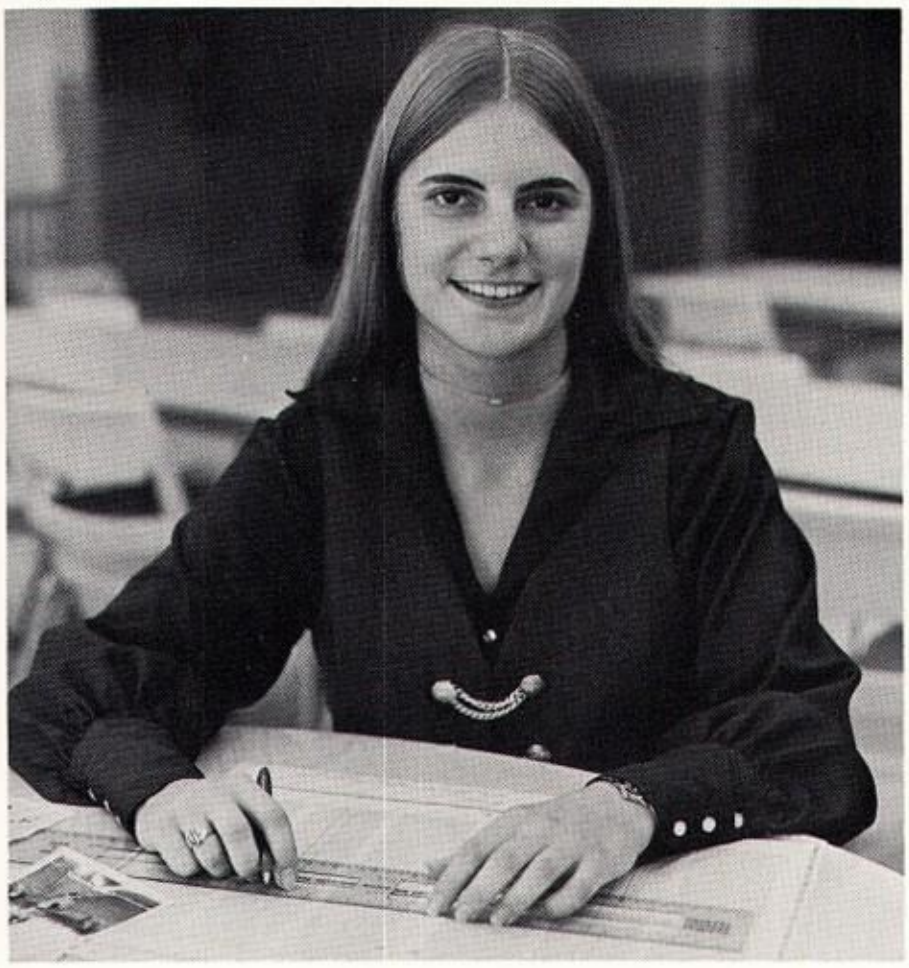
Royále Staff Strives to Produce Better Annual for Wynford Students



Editor-in-chief, Sharon Lust proved to be very efficient in her job as the staff overseer.

Each annual staff member had his own job to do to produce the best Royále yet. Long hours, headaches, and a lot of hard work went into giving the public a summary of W.H.S. in pictures. All thirty members sold and laid out ads and, later, had their special sections to complete. The section members worked on various divisions of the yearbook, the business managers handled the finances, and the editor, the assistant editor, and the adviser designed the book, proofread, and supervised.

EXECUTIVE: ROW 1: M. Leuthold, ed.-in-chief; A. Stormer, sports ed. ROW 2: Mr. Thornton, adviser; L. Reinhard, artist; S. Clark, feature ed.; Mrs. Thornton, adviser.

The Royal Clarion staff proved to be a valuable asset to Wynford High School this year. The newspaper was printed by Art Press Printing, which enabled the staff to run pictures, artwork, and filled-in headlines.

The guidance of the new advisers, Mr. and Mrs. Thornton, added many new ideas for articles, features, and modern methods for the production of the paper.

The Royal Clarion was published every month and provided W.H.S. with entertainment as well as news.

Royals Marching Band Entertains Spectators a

Show entitled "Salute to Louis Armstrong" features famous Armstrong tunes and large poster of the great Stachmo.

Trumpeters come to the front to display their musical talents.

Bass player Chuck Bosworth "ompahs" in time to the music.

Half-times, Mardi Gras, Heidelberg Band Day

The marching band performed at all the Royal football games and the Bucyrus Mardi Gras. Some themes for shows this year were "Showcase for Band," "Signs of the Times," and "Salute to Louis Armstrong," plus the fabrication of the world-famous Bikini Belles.

This year the band made a special trek to Tiffin to the Heidelberg Band Day, where bands from various area schools performed at the pre-game and the half-time of the Heidelberg-Olivet football game. They were also featured in a special article in the Telegraph-Forum.

The marching band members, with their snappy new uniforms, felt that this year was very successful. Their abilities will be hard to top by future bands.

Drum squad struts at practice before the game just to be sure the show is a success.

Bands Show Musical Ability In Annual Performances

In concert and symphonic bands, emphasis is placed on actual musical ability and dynamics rather than volume. Orchestral band gives a chance for relaxation to many students.

The concert band, comprised mostly of freshmen, and symphonic band, whose members are upperclassmen, gave their annual winter and spring concerts. Twenty-nine sophomores were presented with band letters. The senior band members were also recognized.

Wynford had two participants this year in the All-Ohio Boys' Band, Lyle Reinhard and Steve Schrader.

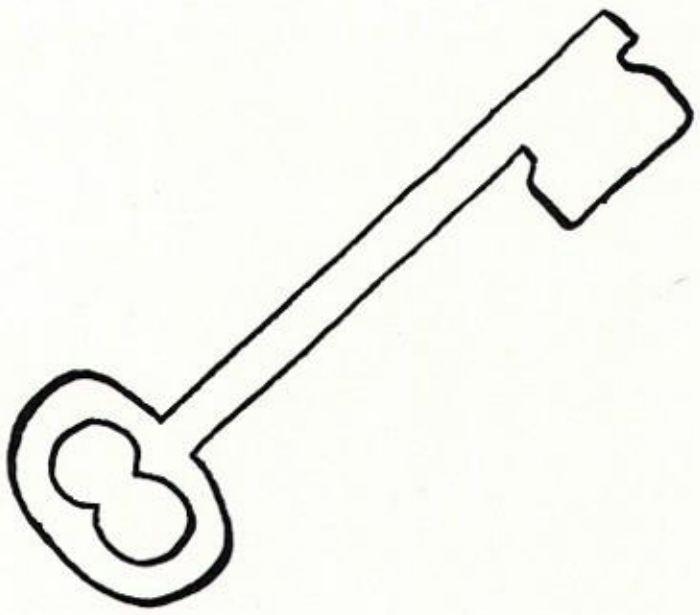
Key Club Develops Initiative and Citizenship; Radio Club "Morse Codes"



The Key Club is an organization aimed at the development of initiative, distinctive leadership ability, and good citizenship practices. The Key Club also helps a person to learn more about the full citizen. It provided our school with services to make it better.

The motto "We Build" was upheld by the thirty-two members. The officers were C. Bosworth, pres.; R. Hieber, v. pres.; D. Kaiser, sec.; D. Jones, tres.; D. Yaussy, sergt. at arms; and Mr. Kindinger, adviser.

The Radio Club is connected mainly with the theory and history of sending and receiving radio messages. Under the advisory of Mr. Naftzger, there were twelve members in the organization this year.

Honor Society, Student Council Represent Both Scholastics, Leadership

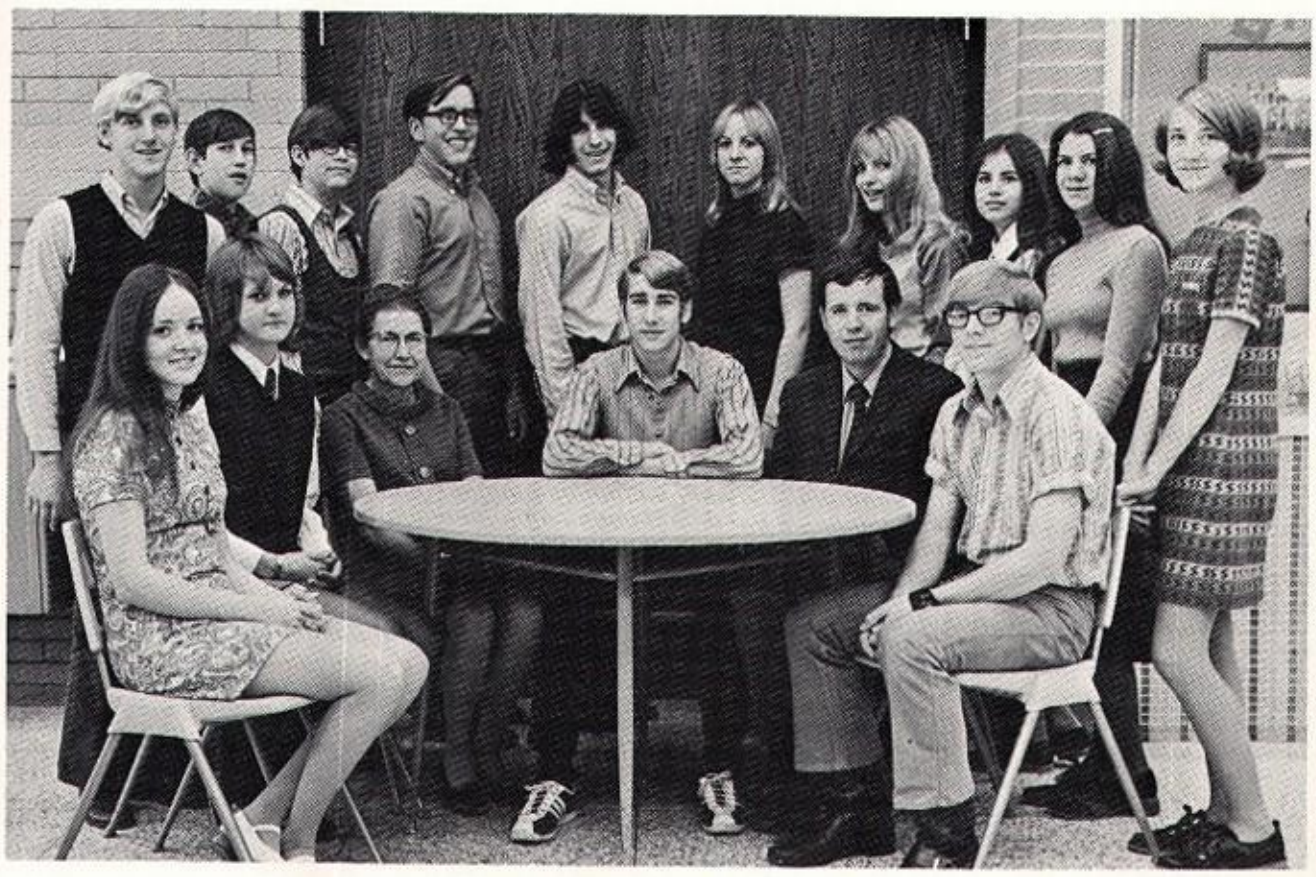
HONOR SOCIETY: ROW 1: M. Bennett, J. Kindinger, S. Lust, D. Leuthold. ROW 2: D. Kaiser, D. Yaussy, P. Keller, B. Rindfuss, Mr. Dilley, adviser.

Induction into the National Honor Society is the greatest honor that can be bestowed upon a high school student. Selection of membership is based upon the student's academic standing in his class, his extra-curricular activities, and a character rating. Scholarship, leadership, character, and service are all considered as members are chosen.

Three representatives from each of the four classes, plus the president and vice-president, comprised the regular assembly of the 1971-72 Student Council. One of the main duties of the council was to present the daily morning announcements.

Each year the student body is given an opportunity to express opinions through the Student Council. It gives the students a chance to participate in school government. This helps to develop and maintain an understanding between the faculty and students.

A few of the undertakings for the year were a discussion of the dress code, presenting a school assembly entitled "You Make a World of Difference," sponsoring the basketball homecoming dance, and selling Wynford Royals sweaters.



STUDENT COUNCIL: ROW 1: J. Gibb, sec.; M. Bennett, v. pres.; Mrs. Kuenzli, adviser; P. Keller, pres.; Mr. Dulin, adviser; S. Gebhardt, treas. ROW 2: J. Oberlander, G. Scheffler, J. Long, D. Mutchler, J. Roberts, J. Ritterspach, P. Roberts, P. Stiner, E. Gerhart, K. Hornak.

R.R.# Bucyrus, Ohio
Phone 562-9102

The doors of Wynford have closed behind us, but others have opened in their places. W. H. S. has been a stadium, an auditorium, a laboratory, a shop, a studio, a prison, a playground, and a home for its students. As well as these, it has been a learning-place in preparation for life.

As editor-in-chief, I would like to thank the Royale staff; the advertisers, without whose support the bills could not have been paid; Steele Studio, for many of the pictures; and Mr. Earl Parks, American Yearbook representative. I especially wish to thank Mr. Larry Borland, adviser, for all his help.
